Email 3: MSP / Print Team

Subject: Why Your MSP and Print Teams Should Work Together

Hello [Name],

We've found that copier-related support tickets can be some of the most frustrating issues in the modern workplace. When choosing a print provider, you have two options:

 Work with a print vendor that has no relationship with our IT team. When your copiers have issues and we need to get involved, we'll have to start at square one with the print team, hastily attempting to navigate their SOP. With this option, you are leaving the quality of your print support up to chance.

 Work with our preferred print vendor! We recommend Green Office Partner to handle ALL of our clients' printing needs. They have processes in place to promote seamless collaboration between our teams, getting as close to first-call resolution as possible.

If you are interested in streamlining your printing and IT workflow today, respond to this email, and we'll connect you with our friends at Green Office Partner.

Email 4: Transitioning to Green Office Partner
